HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER

HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive

Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.

Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongue to all vehicles that has ever been used.

It fastens without bolt or screw and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.

It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO APRIL 30.

Congressional.

In the Senate, Williams from the Committee on Pacific Railroads, reported with amendments the bill to authorize the Southern Minnesota Railroad to connect with the Northern Pacific; also, with amendments the bill to aid in the construction of the Oregon Branch of the Pacific Railroad. Mr Williams gave notice that he would offer a bill relating to the refining of gold and silver bullion at the United States Mint and branches as an amendment to the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, on the ground that it tended to reduce the expenses of the Government in the coinage of money. On motion, that bill was taken up and referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

In the House, Logan from the Military Committee reported adversely on the bill permitting retired military and naval officers to hold civil offices.

The Senate bill granting lands to aid in the construction of a railroad and telegraph line from Portland to Astoria and McMinnville, Oregon, excited long debate. Holman said the bill appropriated 940,000 acres of public land. He had stated on a former occasion that there were 90 bills pending, appropriating over one hundred million acres. He had since learned that this estimate was far below the reality, that the number of bills pending was over one hundred and seventy, appropriating over two hundred and seventy million acres. Since the establishment of the Government there had been given away for purposes of education "seventy eight (78) acres" of public land, and one hundred and eighty five millions to build the fortunes of crafty and unscrupulous men. No less than one hundred and fifty million acres were granted to corporations within the last two years. If that policy was continued it would not be a long time till no lands were left for homestead and pre-emption purposes for which purposes ten million acres were taken last year. Holman continued to argue at length against land grants. Witcher replied to Holman, and McCormick spoke briefly in favor of railroad land grants. Smith of Oregon, argued in support of the bill as in the interest of settlers, present and prospective. At the close of the discussion Holman moved to refer the bill to the Committee on Public Lands; negatived by 75 to 93, and the bill then passed by 97 to 69.

Garfield, from the Committee on Banking and Currency, reported a bill to increase banking facilities, which was recommitted. It provides for the issue of $95,000,000 in national currency to States having less than their proportion and for the redemption and cancellation of forty five millions of 3 per cent certificates and forty millions of legal tenders additional currency to be secured by deposit of 4½ per cent bonds exempt from taxation. When fifty millions of the new issue have been taken up, all banks shall receive some 4½ per cent bonds as security for their circulation. It provides for free banking on a gold basis for the redistribution of two hundred and fifty millions national bank notes from States having an excess to States in which there may be a deficit, redistribution not to take place until ninety-five millions provided for, have been issued. It reduces taxes on circulation one half on all banks that secure all their circulation by new bonds.

CHICAGO, April 29.—A fire broke out at No 203 State street, at midnight, and destroyed property to the value of over $10,000. Several persons narrowly escaped perishing in the flames.

Washington News in General.

CHICAGO, April 29.—The Times' Washington special says that statements sent hence relative to the Indian troubles in the North west are exaggerated and are not official information. The story that 2,000 Sioux are on the war path, the agent of the tribe denies emphatically.

The Second Comptroller of the Treasury rules that the decision of the Supreme Court relative to bounties only applies to the 39 regiments of infantry and cavalry called for by the proclamation of May 3d, 1861, which regiments are only entitled to bounties thereunder.

The House in Committee of the Whole reduced the tariff on railroad iron from seventy to sixty cents per hundred.

The Tribune's dispatch says a bill passed the House for the establishment of a Department of Justice, and is designed to reduce the expenses now incurred by extra legal services. It appears that the amount paid in 1867, exclusive of the expenses of the Surratt trial, aggregated nearly $100,000. During the period from 1861 to 1867 the amount paid Wm. M. Evarts alone was $17,000.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—In the House, this evening, the tariff bill was considered in Committee of the Whole. Several paragraphs relating to iron wire and rope were amended.

RICHMOND, April 29.—The Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia this morning decided that the enabling act passed by the Legislature was constitutional, and that Ellison (not Cahoon) was lawful Mayor of the city; that all acts of Ellison in accordance with the State law, are legal and binding. Canada Matters.

OTTAWA, April 29.—In the Commons Cartier announced that the Red River delegation had been consulted by Government. Donald Smith, Superintendent of the Mission at Red River, was before the House. He recommended a strong force to be sent. Following is the reported plan of compromise to be offered by Government:

First—To organize a small province on both sides of Red River about one hundred and fifty miles square, which will cover the settlement of half breeds.

Second—The Legislature shall have control of the public lands of the Province.

Third—A subsidy shall be granted by the Dominion for colonial expenses.

Fourthly—The balance of the new territory shall be governed from Ottawa.

Funerals at Richmond—Assistance Tendered.

This afternoon all the city property in possession of Mayor Cahoon was transferred to Mayor Ellison.

BY THE CABLES.

PARIS, April 29.—Meetings held yesterday to discuss matters relative to Plebiscitum were more turbulent than ever. One held by the opponents of Plebiscitum in this city was dissolved by the authorities because an accusation of the Emperor was proposed. The people separated with order, though they expressed their disapproval by cheering for a Republic and singing the Marseillaise. Many other meetings were held in the city which, however, were generally orderly. At one of these it was resolved that all those who fail to vote would vote "no."

About 300 refugees who had been compromised in the late troubles in Spain arrived here yesterday.

The testimony in the case of Commodore Upshur, before the Court Martial in session here, on the charge of purchasing coal-ship, was closed to day. The argument for the defense was read yesterday by the Secretary of the Navy. A decision will be given in a few days.

The Chicago Tribune's Washington special says the bribery investigation opens a large field for inquiry and may not be concluded for two or three weeks. Senators who have been sworn say the evidence will convince the country that parties were here with money and buying votes against Bingham's amendment.

The vote on the Oregon railroad subsidy bill yesterday was equally divided between the two parties, Eastern Democrats and Republicans generally voting against it.

PARIS, April 30.—Prince Anatole De Midoff Dilan Danote, husband of Princess Mathilde De Monfort of the Imperial family of France, died this morning aged sixty years.

Reported that the Pope had advised the French clergy to cast their influence and votes on Plebiscitum in favor of the Government.

Reports are rife that the police have discovered a new plot against the State and the life of the Emperor. It is alleged that yesterday a noncommissioned officer was arrested in the Hotel Rue Montmartre who had in his possession a letter from Gustave Flourens and a note containing instructions for his part in the recent conspiracy. The Figaro says part of the design of the plot was to blow up the palace of the Tuilleries and the Prefecture of Police. This afternoon the Journal Officiele announces that the police have been some time in the track of a plot against the life of the Emperor. Yesterday morning one Beaver, recently arrived from England, was arrested, whereby the plot was completely discovered. On his person were found a large sum of money, a revolver and a letter from London from a man who was implicated in a similar plot in February last. This letter, and confessions made by Beaver, leave no doubt of his intention to immediately attempt the assassination of the Emperor. Last night several other persons were arrested at the Belleville quarter. At the house of one of these the police found a large quantity of powder and new explosive bombs, together with directions how to use them. This plot has for its principal organizers many members of the International Association of Workmen in Paris, some of whom have already been arrested. Two members of the International Association of Workmen were arrested this afternoon. The police found upon their persons a complete list of adherents of the plot. The authorities are now scouring the city for these persons. Great military and police precautions are being taken to night.

The Constitutional Barrier Against Public Debts

There are those who are inculcating the idea that a secret movement is contemplated and that in fact the basis of it is already laid to annul by some sort of snap judgment on the people those portions of the Constitution of the State which prohibit loans of credit to corporations and that by such means tremendous debts are to be saddled on the State on counties and on municipalities. Further it is charged in one way or another that the Republican party designs to push this matter and to carry it through under the cry for internal improvements. Most of those who express this alarm probably have never investigated the subject. If they knew that the Constitution cannot be changed except by a slow process which it requires several years to go through and that every amendment must finally be submitted to a vote of the people after such publication as will give full notice and suffice to elicit the fullest discussion they might feel less concern.

As this matter has been broached in many places, it may be as well to look at the article of the Constitution which relates to amendments. We quote:

> Any amendment or amendments to this Constitution may be proposed in either branch of the Legislative Assembly and if the same shall be agreed to by a majority of all the members elected to each of the two houses such proposed amendment or amendments shall with the yeas and nays thereon be entered on their journals and referred to the legislative assembly to be chosen at the next general election and if, in the legislative assembly so next chosen, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be agreed to by a majority of the members elected to each house, then it shall be the duty of the legislative assembly to submit such amendment or amendments to the electors of the State, and cause the same to be published without delay at least four consecutive weeks in several newspapers published in the State, and if a majority of said electors shall ratify the same, such amendment or amendments shall become a part of this Constitution.

It is further provided that such proposed amendment shall be voted on separately and that while an amendment or amendments which have been agreed upon by one Legislature shall be pending, no additional amendment shall be proposed. It will thus be seen that it is impossible to amend the Constitution in any hasty manner, or without the full concurrence of the people. An amendment cannot be "put through" without giving the people a chance to consider it. In every case they will have an opportunity for the most mature deliberation. For example, if the Legislature elected in 1870 should propose an amendment, it would be necessary to submit it to the Legislature elected in 1872. It could not be submitted to any subsequent or special session of the Legislature elected in 1870. Then after having been concurred in by the Legislature chosen in 1872, it would go to the people, to be voted on in the regular order, in the next general election,—that is, in 1874. So it will be seen how little ground there is for fear that an amendment to run the State in debt for the benefit of corporations will be hurried through and proclaimed.

Nor is there any probability whatever that the Republican party will attempt to carry such a measure through. We have not heard that Republicans anywhere have proposed it. In the present condition of our affairs such an amendment could not pass, and should not be proposed. And we are very sure that as many Republicans as Democrats would take ground against it. For ourselves, we should fight such a proposition with all our strength, let the proposition come from what source it might. Should an amendment of this kind be offered it would certainly be rejected, on coming to the people, by an overwhelming vote. The Republican party will not commit itself to such a policy, and there is no danger of its adoption.

Gen. Palmer and our Indian War

Our opponents are letting fly at General Palmer the shafts of calumny for his official conduct during the the Indian war in Oregon. They falsely represent that it was through his instrumentality that the larger portion of that war debt was never paid. But the official correspondence of Gen Palmer, (who was Superintendent of Indian Affairs at the time), which has all been published, shows not one word against the payment of any just claim incurred in that war. On the contrary he insisted at all times that the claims of our people for services and supplies, should be acknowledged by the Government, and fully paid. It is true that he cast deserved censure upon a class of depraved and vicious whites who, as our people know, were largely instrumental in provoking the war and acted throughout with a desire to profit from the sufferings and blood of their countrymen. The press of Oregon, and especially the Statesman, then the leading Democratic organ of Oregon, also censured them as Gen. Palmer had done, and even went much further. But Gen Palmer always contended for the payment of the just and legitimate claims growing out of that war. He represented that people who were innocent of any attempt to tamper with the Indians and who never done them the smallest act of injustice, had been attacked and murdered, that their neighbors had been obliged to fly from their homes and fight for their lives, that supplies had been furnished in good faith to carry on the contest, that men had volunteered their services and submitted to great danger, hardships and privations to quell the out-break, and that all claims of this description were valid against the Government and should be paid without delay. Such was the position of Gen Palmer and this attempt of unscrupulous political opponents to array prejudice against him has no foundation to rest upon.

With a degree of impudence that is still more astounding the opposition are endeavoring to make capital in their favor by asserting that the larger part of this war debt has been repudiated by the Government. By whom then was it repudiated? Our Indian war occurred in 1855-6. For five years after that time the Democratic party controlled the Government in all its branches. Yet not one dollar of the debt would that party pay. Gen Lane was in Congress during that whole period. Why did he not secure its payment? Mr Grover was a member of Congress for one term. What did he accomplish? Nothing whatever. The Democratic party virtually repudiated the debt. The only portion of it that was ever assumed by the Government was assumed after the final overthrow of the Democratic party. This partial assumption of the debt was secured mainly through the influence of Col. Baker. Yet our Democratic organs prate of the repudiation of the Oregon war debt as if they supposed they were making a great point against their political opponents. They are, in fact, impeaching themselves. They are bringing a heavy accusation against their own party against Gen Lane Mr Grover, and the other inefficient men to whom the interests of Oregon were entrusted by the Democratic party [illegible] that party was expelled from power.

County Republican Nominations

The proceedings of the county Republican Convention will be found in another column. The ticket on the whole is a good one and will command general support, though doubtless there are some who will find occasion to criticise one part or another of it. Of course nobody ever saw a ticket that was fully satisfactory to all and probably there is as little objection to this as there would have been to any that it was possible to nominate. All the names on the ticket are those of well known citizens and persons of assured integrity. The ticket will be elected by a good majority. How large a majority depends of course, to some extent on the work we do before the election. Now is the time to awake and get to work. We can give a majority something like our old figures if we only will to do it.

Editorial Notes

A correspondent of the Statesman who heard Judge Wilson and Mr Slater speak in Union county, says "Slater denied everything Wilson had proved by Supreme Court decisions and Democratic platforms." That is well put. And the pith of it is that it exactly "takes off" Mr Slater's style.

Oregon Democratic papers will never cease bragging about great gains in Connecticut,—a State in which their party has elected the Governor by 732 majority, against 1765 majority for the same person two years ago. The Portland organ has had something like a dozen leaders, more or less, on this promising subject and doubtless will furnish many more.

The OREGONIAN has stated that it is an independent advocate of Republican principles. Whereat the Herald manifests much concern and publishes a long article to show that the OREGONIAN meditates treason to the Republican party! Grasshopper Jim's organ is giving itself needless trouble. This paper as an independent advocate of Republican principles, has successively vanquished and sent into retirement during several years past one Herald editor after another, and is good for any number more of the same kind.

Every statement made by this paper relative to the Portland, Astoria and McMinnville railroad has been fully verified. Opposition organs declared that the bill was a humbug, a trick gotten up by Senator Williams that he never intended it should pass, and that the object of it was to defeat all grants for the west side. This has been iterated and reiterated incessantly for two months. And the Herald, on the very morning we published the news of the final passage of the bill contained an editorial rehashing and reasserting the stale, unfounded stories on the subject with which its columns have been largely occupied for weeks. People interested in this enterprise will now see how much reliance is to be placed in the statements of that paper.

Congressman Smith kept back the Portland, Astoria and McMinnville railroad bill as long as he could, but those working Republicans in Congress who are devoted to the idea of internal improvements, brushed aside his dilatory motions and absurd amendments, and passed the bill. Mr Smith was coerced into voting for it, as he knew it would not do to vote against it. But his Democratic brethren fought it with all their might. Read the synopsis of the speech of Holman (Dem) of Indiana, who spoke for his party on the subject. Are any further proofs wanted that we must look entirely to the Republican party for the advancement of the material interests of the country? Some Republicans voted against this grant, no doubt, but the Democratic votes for it will be found very scarce.

It appears that the Albany Democrat, has a correspondent at Portland who sustains it in its difference with the Herald about repudiation. Or, if not a veritable correspondent, at least the shadow of one, that will do well enough to stand as supposititious author of a letter that might have been written in the Democrat office or anywhere else. In this letter dated Portland, April 26th, the following occurs: "Your article in reply to the Herald was capital. It was well received here. Let us see now how the Portland organ will receive this new thrust under the fifth rib. No doubt, however it will take it quietly, and, lest it may endanger its chances of obtaining the State printing meekly submit to the indignity of being told that it does not represent the Democracy of Portland, but that a little weekly journal up in one of the 'cow counties' is their recognized organ."

A Letter from Senator Corbett

WASHINGTON, April 11 1870.

JUDGE J G WILSON—Dear Sir: Allow me to congratulate you upon your nomination for Congress. I am equally well pleased with the nomination of Gen Joel Palmer for Governor. He is an old and well tried friend of Oregon and the Union party. He has ever been ready as a pioneer in developing our resources whether in settling our State developing our mineral wealth, or building manufacturing establishments. He has always shown himself a true friend to progress and often to his own cost. I cannot doubt that he will be appreciated for his many sterling qualities and endorsed by the people in placing him in the highest position in the State. We have a brief telegram under date of April 7th, in which it is stated that General Palmer is nominated for Governor and that you were nominated for Congress, that the platform adopted approves the policy of the Administration and declares that no no repudiator of the public debt can be trusted in public places, [illegible] poses any change in the naturalization laws and recommends universal amnesty. What more can any honest Democrat ask, any lover of the honor of his country and the good reputation of our noble young State desire? I can imagine that there are those who would like to drag the credit of this Government down to the level of that of the late Confederate States, but I trust that Oregon will not be the first to set such an example by an attempt in the slightest degree to depreciate or repudiate any [illegible] privilege of giving many of her [illegible] suppression of the rebellion [illegible] that the few whom we did [illegible] were brave. Shall we be less [illegible] in maintaining our [illegible] I believe with [illegible] contribute our full share in the liquidation of the National debt without asking the discount of a dollar. With this [illegible] days of our darkest trial and [illegible] we succeeded in putting down the rebellion [illegible] debt would be paid in gold. We have contracted the most sacred obligation. Let our young State be true to its honest instincts and repudiate all repudiators. Let me have the power to say that Oregon ever [illegible] for all forms of repudiation. For near twenty years I have been with you in Oregon. We have grown with her growth and strengthened with her strength. What is for her interest and the interest of our people is for my interest and the interest of my children. I am proud of our young State. I desire her prosperity. I would maintain her good name and credit by repudiating all forms of bad faith. As for my part I will see my substance perish and my right arm wither before I will support by vote or act any form of repudiation of this sacred debt. With an earnest wish for the success of our candidates, for the preservation of our credit as a State I remain very truly, yours

Mr Gibbs and Irish Citizens

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

Some remarks made by Mr Gibbs at a recent political gathering in this city seem to have caused much annoyance in certain quarters. This gentleman is reported to have said concerning an Irish citizen who had expressed dissatisfaction at the extension of the suffrage to the negro race, "If he and his kind do not like our institutions they can go back to Ireland and try how they like it there." These words with varied comments have gone the round of the Democratic press—of course for the purpose of making political capital. Many have not scrupled to affirm that this remark characterizes the feeling of a large number of the Republican party. Republican newspapers have offered no word of explanation and Mr Gibbs has remained silent. There may be reasons for this silence but whatever these reasons may be justice to the Republican party and to naturalized citizens demands that the words of Mr Gibbs should not pass without comment from a Republican standpoint.

The Irishman is not here by the permission nor the Englishman by the sufferance nor the German by the tolerance of any political party. Naturalized citizens are in the United States because they desire to be here, and because the country permits and invites their presence. The vast extent of this country, its illimitable resources and the genius of its Government render it impossible to close the gates of emigration against either Saxon or Celt. Were such a thing possible, it would still be most undesirable. Know Nothingism was an attempt of patriotic blindness to accomplish an impossibility.

The naturalized citizen, Irish or otherwise has just as much right here as Mr Gibbs, and circumstances justifying the remark, can with equal propriety tell Mr Gibbs that if he does not like the institutions of this country he can go out of it. But let us not do Mr Gibbs an injustice because he happens to be a candidate for office. Is not the Democratic press doing Mr Gibbs a great injustice and sowing bad feeling between native born and naturalized citizens by attaching a meaning to his remarks that he did not intend? Did Mr Gibbs intend to convey the meaning that Irishmen had no right here and were not wanted in the United States? Did he intend his words to be unsympathetic to misgoverned Ireland? I am induced to believe that he did not. No doubt he would as readily make the same remark to an American born citizen as to any one else. Do I mistake Mr. Gibbs sentiments upon this subject? I trust not, for he is a warm adherent to a party that declares that it approves the principles and policy of President Grant, and particularly when he states, "I would protect the law abiding citizen, whether of native or foreign birth, wherever his rights are invaded or the flag of our country floats."

Now and then, especially during political contests, there creep out little words of intolerance towards men of foreign birth, but these remarks come only from a small unthinking minority—not peculiar either to Democrats or Republicans. I like to hear a man boast that he was born an American if he adds to that boast the declaration that he thinks and acts like an American. Without the latter, the former is valueless and avails him nothing.

I am told that a large portion of Irish citizens vote the Democratic ticket. I respectfully wish it were otherwise, but how can I remedy it? How can the Republican party prevent it? I know of no plan, but behaving so courteously and generously towards them that they will be ashamed to belong to any party but Republicans. The Democratic party, for all controlling, governing purposes is as good as dead in the United States. It cannot define its issues nor declare its aims. It cannot define its issues, nor declare its aims. It has been left behind in the march of progress and is almost buried by the expansion of civilization. As a party I fail to see what claim it has to the support of naturalized citizens or why it should seek as it has done in this State, to prejudice Irish citizens against the great and increasing majority of the Republican party.

JOHN ARNOUP

THE LANGUAGE OF THE BEASTS AND THE BIRDS. From the Boston Journal we take the following:

It is a common saying that man is distinguished from brutes by the noble gift of speech but in this we are assuming altogether too much. We call animals dumb and imply a certain pity in the word but in some native language of their own they may be calling us likewise poor dumb creatures and commiserating our inability to frame their speech. The sounds they utter which are unintelligible to us and which we are intent to describe as crowing, cackling, neighing, mewing, chirping, barking, may each be articulated words of unwritten dialects, in which every species finds expression for its thoughts and desires. Who ever heard a flock of ducks quacking together as they waddled along in single file toward a pond, and was not convinced that they were holding sweet and earnest converse by the way? Who can listen to a quarrel between martins swallows in early Spring before some besieged and airy domicile, and believe that all their vociferous chatter is meaningless to them. It is plainly evident that they are calling each other feather rascals and villains and dealing out threats and objurgations in epithets that no hearer can mistake. The deep voiced frogs that croak through all the country side under the starlight and dews may be gurgling tender serenades in their cold blooded fashion to lady loves beneath the waves although Aristophanes failed to translate them into his rough Greek. When we come upon a solemn company of crows that have settled upon the tall tree of a lonely wold we stop to listen to their hoarse notes in full faith that they carry much meaning in such sepulchral tones and that they have halted there to discuss their prospects and determine upon some plan for the next campaign. For aught we know they may be repeating the substance of that fine old English ballad which tells how three of their race sat upon a tree debating where they should dine and that one described how in a lonesome glen a noble knight lay freshly slain and then summoned them to a banquet on his bonny blue een, and his white breast bone adding that the golden down on his young chin would do to wrap their young ones in. At any rate they have, doubtless, their orators and demagogues who are versed in all tricks of stump speaking and who sway at will the less gifted of their kind. But until they shall invent writing for themselves, and an alphabet and furnish us with a skilled interpreter, we shall have to call their eloquence and their small talk the veriest jargon, and find pleasure only in the sweet warbling of merrier birds since music and laughter in which these joyous little souls delight are the only utterances that possess a universal and unvarying speech.

Should their report be favorable it is expected that many families from Illinois and Wisconsin will emigrate to Washington Territory during the next fall. They express themselves highly gratified and surprised at the progress and development of our fine city not expecting to find here in the distant northwest so many fine edifices of modern architecture, design, steam fire engines such excellent improvements in the line of water supplies gas, and street pavements so much refinement and civilization. The German citizens of Portland without distinction of party met together on Saturday and in a body paid their respects to Governor Salomon. They will leave to morrow on the steamer for Olympia.

MISSIONARY EXERCISES. The attendance yesterday afternoon at the missionary exercises given by the Taylor Street M E Sunday School was large. The programme which was both interesting and instructive delighted all present. [illegible] was represented by the scholars. The concert opened with singing "Who shall shine" by the school and then after prayer by Rev M [illegible] Roberts dialogue singing by the school [illegible] Sabbath School. Silas Kelly then delivered an introductory address and this was followed with a quartette by Mrs. Gibson Mrs J C Moreland Miss Laura Kline and Messrs J C Moreland and Prof T H Crawford, Miss I M Anderson presiding at the Organ. "Its Inability" an extract read by Miss Anna Northrup, had a good effect, showing why the Missionary Board deemed it best to draw for less money than the estimates called for, to carry on the missionary work, the extract having been first prefaced by a few pertinent remarks from the Pastor. Then followed a solo and duet by two little Misses—Lizzie Anderson and Lillie Buchtel—which was well rendered. A dialogue upon Oregon Missionaries full of reminiscences of the local work was next recited by Misses Sarah Douglas and Ada Northrop following which was a recitation by little Master Herbert [illegible] five years old. At the close of this part, most appropriately to the occasion and the service Rev Father Wilbur delivered a brief address upon Inheritance after which the school sang "If we knew" and the benediction was pronounced. A collection was taken for the benefit of the missionary cause and the school proper proceeded with their usual Sunday exercises.

GEORGE P. RILEY. Referring to Mr George P Riley a colored barber of this city whose lecture at Philharmonic Hall on Tuesday evening last, has attracted so much attention the Advocate says: Mr Riley has had the advantage of no regular course of education. His mother was President of the First Female Emancipation Society organized in the country, and was anxious to secure his admission into College but failed. Now the Colleges are open, but it is too late. How much of pathos is in this incidental remark as it came from one naturally so capacitated for high culture and scholarship! In his younger days he spent two years in the offices of Ben Butler and Wendell Phillips thus attaining himself all limited privileges freely given by men in advance of their days. After a second residence on this coast, amounting in all to about fourteen years he returned to the States and entered a business with which he was unacquainted, adventuring his capital against the skill of his partner. The business was soon abandoned and Mr R. was left to sell out at a disadvantage and to gathering discouragements of his great purpose.

CITY.

ARRIVAL OF GEN. SALOMON AND PARTY.—A party of distinguished and prominent citizens, numbering twenty-five, arrived in this city on Saturday evening by the N. P. T. Co.'s steamer Ione Taylor, en route to Washington Territory. Among the party is Gen. Edward S. Salomon, the newly appointed Governor of Washington Territory. This gentleman has been a resident of Chicago almost since his advent to this country from his native land, Germany, where he practised his profession as a member of the bar. When the late rebellion broke out, he was a member of the Board of Aldermen of that city; but he entered the army as Lieutenant, and was afterwards raised to the command of the Eighty second Regiment of Illinois volunteers, and by his meritorious conduct he was subsequently promoted to a Brigadier Generalship. At the close of the war he returned to his adopted city, and was elected County Clerk of Cook county, one of the most important and lucrative offices in the State, which he held for four years. In acknowledgment of his faithful services rendered during the war, President Grant has honored him with the appointment of Governor of that Territory named, to supersede Gov. Flanders. Before leaving his home for the scene of his new labors, the General was the recipient of many tokens, compliments from his fellow-citizens, and was also presented with a massive service of silver as a mark of appreciation and esteem. Major J. R. Hayden, the newly appointed Internal Revenue Assessor for the Territory is also one of the party. Mr. A. C. Hesing, editor of the Illinois Staats Zeitung, one of the most influential journals in the Northwest and President of the Company by which it is published, and Dr. George Schloetzer, Commissioner of the Board of Health of Chicago, accompanies the Governor and several others of the party as a Committee from the Colonization Society of Chicago, to report on the resources of Washington Territory, agricultural and otherwise.

Should their report be favorable, it is expected that a colony of about one thousand German families from Illinois and Wisconsin, will emigrate to Washington Territory during the coming fall. They expressed themselves highly gratified at the progress and development of our city, not expecting to find here in the far northwest so many fine edifices of modern design, steam fire engines, such extensive improvements in the line of water supplies, gas, and street pavements, so much refinement and [illegible]. The German citizens of Portland, without distinction of party, met together on Sunday, and in a body paid their respects to Governor Salomon. They will leave to-morrow for Olympia.

"ANNIVERSARY EXERCISES."—The attendance yesterday afternoon at the missionary exercises given by the Taylor Street M. E. Sunday School was large. The programme, which was both interesting and instructive, delighted all present, in the manner it was represented by the children. The concert opened with singing "The Child Shines," by the school, and then after prayer by Rev. Mr. Roberts, dialogue singing by [illegible], "I Love the Sabbath School." Silas [illegible] delivered an introductory address, and this was followed with a quartette by Mrs. Gibson, Mrs. J. C. Moreland, Miss Laura Kline, and Messrs. J. C. Moreland and Prof. T. H. Crawford, L. H. Anderson presiding at the Organ. Then followed a solo and duet by two [illegible], Annie Anderson and Lillie Buchtel [illegible] rendered. A dialogue upon [illegible], full of reminiscences of [illegible] was next recited by Misses Sarah [illegible] and [illegible] Northrup, following which was [illegible] by little Master Herbert—scarcely [illegible]. A collection was taken for the benefit [illegible], and the school proper [illegible] with their usual Sunday exercises.

[illegible] RILEY.—Referring to Mr. George Riley, a colored barber of this city, whose lecture at Philharmonic Hall on Tuesday evening [illegible] attracted so much attention, the Advocate says: "Mr. Riley has had the advantage of a regular course of education. His mother [illegible] of the First Female Emancipation [illegible] in the country, and was anxious [illegible] his admission into College, but [illegible] the Colleges are open, but it is too [illegible] much of pathos is in this incidental [illegible] from one naturally so capacious [illegible] of high culture and scholarship! DEMOCRATIC PRIMARIES.—At the Democratic [illegible] held on Saturday last, the following [illegible] were elected delegates to the County Convention, from the precincts named below:

North Portland Precinct—D. F. Harrington, [illegible] Stephenson, E. C. Bronaugh, [illegible] Malligan, J. O. Waterman, H. J. Twomey, James Lyons, Wm. Healy, Jas. [illegible]

Central Precinct—Dr. Wm. Weatherford, S. F. [illegible], A. M. Snyder, Thomas Burk, Louis [illegible], L. Levin, J. Fleischner, [illegible]

South Portland Precinct—Wm. Church, J. Wilson, J. D. [illegible], G. W. Brown, P. Taylor, John H. Smith, J. W. Shattuck and Arthur Fay.

The following named gentlemen were elected as the [illegible] committee:

J. H. Hayden, B. J. Ladd and G. W. Brown.

[illegible] Thomas Fitch, B. Trainor, E. L. Quimby, Jas. Frush, F. Elliott and Geo. Shafer.

WOMAN'S SHOES.—We could never account for the fashion of women's shoes, of the present day. The awkward, cripple-producing light heels certainly have not good sense to back them, but just the opposite is recommended by women of good [illegible]. A returned European lady [illegible] tells of an interview she had with Miss Florence Nightingale. During the conversation she could not help noticing the singular shape of that lady's foot. She had never heard that Miss Nightingale was lame, or mal-formed, but certainly something was the matter. Her curiosity [illegible] to inquire, of some mutual friend, who at once explained that Miss Nightingale, despising the modern instruments of torture vended by fashionable shoemakers, is accustomed to plant her stocking foot firmly on a piece of leather, draw the outline of the figure it forms, and have her shoes made to correspond exactly with it.

NEW AGENCIES.—Branches of the Real Estate Agency of Messrs. Perry & Russell, of this city, have been put into operation at every prominent place in this valley, and the firm have been very judicious in their selections of gentlemen to take charge of those offices. The benefits to be derived by the workings of these well managed institutions are not merely local, nor individual. The real estate agents of Portland to be sure, are doing a business for their own profit, but they fill a want which at this time cannot be supplied with[out] them. Mr. Russell is in Albany, attending to the affairs of the firm there at the present time. They have a large amount of choice lands for sale.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC.—The several Sunday schools of this city, which are to go upon the excursion this week over the Oregon and California Railroad, are as follows: Hall Street M. E. Church; First Congregational; Taylor Street M. E. Church; Lutheran, Baptist and First Presbyterian. The excursion will take place on Saturday next, and the schools will each meet at their respective churches on that morning, at 7 o'clock, and march to the ferry landing. No one will be allowed to go that has not a badge from the Superintendent of the school to which they belong. The picnic grounds selected are in the vicinity of the Clackamas river.

DEDICATION.—Brooklyn Lodge No. 181, I. O. G. T., will dedicate their new hall in Brooklyn, near the residence of Gideon Tibbetts, on the evening of the 13th. The friends of temperance will be generally invited. The lodge now numbers a membership of 65. At the last meeting Joseph Freeman was elected W. C. T.; Mary Long, W. V. T.; Penumbra Kelly, P. W. C. T.; [illegible], W. S.; O. F. Cooper, W. F. S.; [illegible] Long, W. T.; John Riley, W. M.; Flora [illegible], W. I. G.; Wm. Fraser, W. O. G.

SALE OF BLOCKS.—Fourteen blocks of land in Atkin's Addition to East Portland, were sold by A. B. Richardson, at his auction rooms on Saturday last. Fourteen additional persons became identified with the interests of the community by this transfer. The aggregate price of the blocks was $9,535. Block 266 sold for $1,000; 265 sold for $850; 264 for $900; 263 for $910; 260 for $810; 279 for $785; 277 for $790; 273 for $655; 306 for $575; 305 for $560; 317 $425; 318 for $390; 319 for $750; 320 for $410.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—The May term of this court convenes this morning, Judge Lorenzo Sawyer presiding. We understand that Judge Sawyer will only remain this time long enough to hear the cases on appeal, but that hereafter he expects to be able to give more time to this part of his circuit. Judge Deady is entitled to sit with him, but we are not certain that the bench of the District Court room will hold more than one Judge at a time.

CITY PROPERTY AND FARMS FOR SALE.—Messrs. Parrish & Atkinson one of the established real estate firms in this city, offer 30 lots for sale in this city, at prices varying from $500 to $9,000. They have also advertised in another column 1,559 acres of improved and partly improved farms for sale, at prices varying from $4.50 to $10 an acre. They have certainly very many good localities suitable to the wants of the immigrant.

CONTRACTS FOR IRON WORK.—The Oregon Iron Works, at this city, Mr. John Price, President, last week contracted to furnish the iron work for the Commercial Street Hotel at Salem. This is a pretty heavy contract. The same Company also contracted for some heavy iron work for the Idaho Penitentiary, and also to furnish a large new steam saw mill to be built on Yaquina Bay.

CONTRACT AWARDED.—On Saturday last the Odd Fellows' Building Association let the contract for cementing and finishing the exterior of the walls of the Odd Fellows' Temple in this city, to Mr. Thomas Huntington—he being the lowest responsible bidder for the work. Three other bids were submitted.

THE RIVER.—Water was rising very slowly yesterday, in consequence of a change of the atmosphere in the region of the mountains, no doubt, which checked the melting of the snows. It is thought that the navigation companies can use their lower wharves yet for several days uninterruptedly.

PAY DAY.—The Board of Directors of the Public School for this district have adopted the plan of paying off the teachers, and disbursing other moneys necessary for the support of the district, monthly. This is the day upon which payments will be made for expenses incurred last month.

ANNOUNCEMENT.—Rev. Thomas Summerville, of Victoria, will deliver a lecture this evening in Philharmonic Hall, for the benefit of the Young Men's Christian Association. Subject, "An Early Hero of the Pacific." Lecture will commence at 8 o'clock. Admission 50 cents.

PAPER MAILS.—Every steamer to this port now brings a heavy paper mail. McCormick, of the Franklin Book Store, gets a large proportion of this, we judge, from the supply of monthlies and popular weeklies on hand Saturday evening, from which he supplied our wants.

DECLINES.—Mr. Thos. Kearney who, on Saturday, was nominated for constable for Madison Precinct, declines the nomination. He states that he wants no office whatever from any party, and will not accept any.

SHOWER.—One of the most pleasant rain showers which has fallen for a year, visited this region yesterday forenoon. It laid the dust nicely, and dampened vegetation perfectly.

SALMON IN KITS.—R. G. Sneath & Co. advertise this morning that they now have on hand the famous salmon cured and packed by R. G. Aldrich, at Cathlamet Head.

The Washington Democracy on the Chinaman.

OLYMPIA, W. T., April 26, 1870.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:—I see by reading the OREGONIAN, that the Democracy of Oregon are greatly excited on the questions of Chinamen and Chinese emigration. How different the Democracy of Washington Territory. Judge J. D. Mix, the Democratic candidate for Delegate to Congress from this Territory, introduced into our Legislature, last winter, a bill repealing all laws in the Territory discriminating against Chinamen, Mongolians, &c. The bill became a law—the Democrats of both Houses as well as the Republicans voting for it. It reads as follows:

"AN ACT TO REPEAL ALL POLICE TAX LAWS DISCRIMINATING AGAINST CHINESE, MONGOLIANS AND KANAKAS.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Washington, That the acts of the following titles, to-wit: An act to levy taxes on Kanakas, approved January 28, 1858; an act to protect free white labor against competition with Chinese Coolie labor, and to discourage the immigration of the Chinese into this Territory, passed January 23, 1864, and the several acts amendatory thereto, passed at the several sessions of 1864-5, 1865-6, 1866-7, and any laws or parts of laws which levy a police tax discriminating against persons of the Mongolian race, or natives of the Sandwich, Society, or other islands of the Pacific, residing in this Territory, be and the same are hereby repealed.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage."

Why should the Democracy of Oregon get scared at their shadows, while the Democracy of Washington attempt to catch them. "OLYMPIA."

The Baby.

The perfection of the providence of childhood is easily acknowledged. The care which covers the root of the tree under the tough husks and stony cases, provides for the human plant the mother's breast and the father's house. The size of the nestler is comic, and its tiny, beseeching weakness is compensated perfectly by the happy, patronizing look of the mother, who is a sort of high reposing Providence toward it. Welcome to the parents the puny struggle, strong in his weakness, his little arms more irresistible than the soldier's, his lips touched with persuasion which Chatham and Pericles in manhood had not. His unaffected lamentations when he lifts up his voice on high, or, more beautiful, the sobbing child—the face all liquid grief, as he tries to swallow his vexation—softened all hearts to pity and to mirthful and clamorous compassion. The small despot asks so little that all reason and all nature are on his side. His ignorance is more charming than all knowledge, and his little sins more bewitching than any virtue. His flesh is angel's flesh, all alive. "Infancy," says Coleridge, "presents body and spirit in unity; the body is all animated." All day, between his three or four sleeps, he coos like a pigeon house, sputters and spurs and puts on faces of importance; and when he fasts, the little Pharisee fails not to sound his trumpet before him. By lamplight he delights in shadows on the wall; by daylight, in yellow and scarlet. Carry him out of doors—he is overpowered by the light and by the extent of natural objects, and is silent. Then presently begins his use of his fingers, and he studies power—the lesson of his race. First it appears in no great harm in architectural tastes. Out of blocks, thread spools, cards and checkers, he will build his pyramid with the gravity of Philadio. With an acoustic apparatus of whistle and rattle he explores the laws of sound. But chiefly, like his senior countrymen, the young American studies new and speedier modes of transportation—mistrusting the cunning of his legs, he wishes to ride on the necks and shoulders of all flesh. The small enchanter nothing can withstand—no seniority of age, no gravity of character, uncles, aunts, grandsires and grandmas, fall an easy prey; he conforms to nobody, all conform to him, all caper and make mouths, and babble and chirrup to him. On the strongest shoulders he rides, and pulls the hair of laureled heads.

Caution.—Audacious Counterfeit!

The reputation which, for many years, has attached to "Hostetter's Stomach Bitters," as the STANDARD TONIC OF THE AGE, and the demand for the article, not only in the United States but elsewhere, have provoked the cupidity of the counterfeiting tribe, and it has been extensively simulated and imitated by unscrupulous sharpers. The most daring counterfeit of said article, which has been attempted, has recently come to our knowledge. The engraved steel label on bottles containing the genuine bitters with its beautiful vignette of St. George and the dragon, its shield, containing a warning against counterfeiters, and its note of hand for "one cent," at the foot, signed with our firm name, has been copied so closely, that the fraud can only be detected on a minute inspection. The dark label is also well counterfeited, and the wording on both the imitation and the genuine are precisely the same, the difference being simply in the execution of the work; that of the imitation being somewhat coarser than the genuine. Other counterfeits are on the market, which are in all particulars the same as described above, with the exception of a slight difference in the spelling of our name.

In addition to the above, these counterfeiters have gone so far in some instances as to place a strip of paper over the cork and fasten to the neck of the bottle, on which is a vignette, and otherwise printed to resemble the general appearance of our proprietary U. S. Revenue stamp, but upon inspection will disclose the absence of the figure "4," and the words "four cents," also "United States Internal Revenue," all of which, together with additional wording appear on our genuine stamp. The public are, therefore, especially warned against these new Counterfeits, and are advised to purchase Hostetter's Stomach Bitters only of houses whose integrity is above suspicion. The true specific is sold in bottles exclusively—never in bulk.—HOSTETTER & SMITH.

The Union Republican voters of Columbia county, Oregon, will meet in Delegate Convention at the Court House in St. Helens, on Tuesday, May 19, A. D. 1870, at 1 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of nominating a county ticket to be supported at the coming June election, and to attend to such other business as may come before the convention. The several precincts are requested to hold their meetings at their respective places of voting on the Saturday previous and select delegates as follows: Union Precinct, 4 delegates; the other precincts, 2 delegates each.

B. M. WATTS,
Chairman Union Rep. Co. Com.

St. Helens, Oregon, April 20, 1870.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

The Union Republican party of Oregon, in Convention, makes this declaration of its principles and policy:

1st. Unfaltering devotion to the Union, first, last, and forever; and unwavering fidelity to the Constitution and its amendments, and to the laws of our National Legislature.

2d. We wholly approve the principles and policy of the administration of President Grant, as carrying into practical application the principles for which we have successfully striven. And we particularly commend these points in his Inaugural Address, wherein he declares—"let it be understood that no repudiator of one farthing of our public debt will be trusted in public places, and it will go far towards strengthening a credit which ought to be the best in the world," and "I would protect the law abiding citizen, whether of native or foreign birth, wherever his rights are prejudiced or the flag of our country floats;" and "I will have no policy to enforce against the will of the people."

3d. We have confidence that the Administration will wisely and firmly protect the interests and sustain the dignity of the Nation in respect to other nations, and especially with regard to our just claims against Great Britain.

4th. We denounce all forms of repudiation as a national crime,—and the national honor requires the payment of the public indebtedness in the uttermost good faith to all creditors at home or abroad, not only according to the letter, but the spirit of the laws under which it was contracted. And for this purpose, we favor a strict economy in the Administration of the National Government, and the application to such payment of all surplus revenue, from whatever sources derived and that taxation should be equalized and reduced as rapidly as the national faith will permit.

5th. We make no distinction between citizens, whether of foreign or native birth, and that we sympathize now and ever with men of all nationalities striving for self government.

6th. That we are opposed to any change in our naturalization laws which shall admit to citizenship any foreigners not now entitled thereto under said laws.

7th. We favor a judicious system of railroad and river improvements in Oregon, in order to develop our resources and invite settlement of our unoccupied territory—and for this purpose insist that Congress should make a liberal grant of aid.

8th. We are in favor of a tariff for revenue, with such discriminations in favor of our domestic manufacturer as will not diminish its efficiency for the purposes of revenue.

9th. We favor universal amnesty to the people of those States lately in rebellion, which have been restored to full relations in the Union.

10th. We are in favor of fostering the cause of education, and are opposed to any diversion of the common school funds of this State to any other purpose than the support of common schools.

11th. We recognize in the Union Republican party the measures and men who saved the Government from destruction, and that its continuance in power is the only sure safeguard to national peace and prosperity. And with this platform we appeal to the voters of Oregon for their suffrages and support.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS. 685 AND 687 FRONT ST.
HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.
The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.
BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

But would prefer, if the same to him,
To sell him goods for the ready tin.

Send on your orders, send on your clerk,
By sending the money you're saving the ink,
No danger in sending by young children or wife—
We're all of us married and settled for life.
Our love is on the golden plan,
We love the lady as well as the man.
We're partial to none—American or Briton—

The Free Trader s Market for Wheat

The advocates for an almost exclusive English market and at the same time the ready sneerers at the home market get very little comfort from the great English grain trade organ of a late date—the Mark Lane Express—since a single positive and significant assertion in its views of the situation on the 7th of last month, is as follows

Bread goes a begging while many join begging for bread, and while some propose emigration as the great source of relief to the country, no holder of corn believes that a diminished consumption will increase the demand

There we have it—that is the case of eaters sought be relied upon by the illustrationists in regard the exceeding value of the English market for the farmers of Minnesota for by this we learn that low as the price of wheat is at present, the ground down laboring population are too poor to buy, and are recommended to run away from this very glut of foreign imports, this barren invitation to eat extends to those who have no money Let us hear from the great English organ a little further still

"The strange phenomenon is Providence has made the earth teem with plenty that plenty instrumentally caused by the hand of man yet the laboring man is destitute in the midst of abundance The influence of English advices has everywhere been felt abroad In France they have rather cheapened for wheat but not seriously and it is the same in Belgium, Holland Hambro Stettin, Cologne and Odessa The frost may hold on some time in the Northern parts in Azor as well as in the lake ports and Montreal but then liberty to ship will find very little encouragement without an improved range of prices of which there seems no immediate prospect

That was the condition of the boasted English markets at the last accounts and when we note that hardly one-thirtieth of our wheat crop ever gets over there that we eat up at home all but about 4 per cent of it that of that grudgingly admitted the English paper admits that the people are too poor to buy and we have a condition of things so very attractive that it is scarcely a wonder that these partisans of England in this country seek to make us still more enamored of their market for wheat

And this is not all While the free traders are trying to make our people fancy starvation and low prices European fashion because they propose competition with those people one of the remarkable features of the case to look at is the fact that tens of thousands of these same workers are fleeing from their own happy condition to join us to help eat the bread they are denied a sight of on the other side of the water

These are certainly points for our people to consider in casting about to see where they are to obtain relief but it demonstrates that wherever they look, the Mark Lane Express seeks to shut the door in the faces of any who propose too earnestly to knock at it over there. Plainly telling us that they do not want our little surplus they at the same time clamor to sell us for gold or war bonds their carpets, their railroad iron their ten thousand knick knacks such as [illegible] riding with the usage, would leave us poor to the [illegible]

The female brokers [illegible] The [illegible] of Miss Pennie Claflin [illegible] that the new business could hardly be carried on with out money, has opened their accounts on the books of lawyers and brokers of a [illegible] in New York The [illegible] which [illegible] business [illegible] like M [illegible] Mrs Woodhull [illegible] and dress [illegible] and a [illegible] a hat [illegible] what not of [illegible] style and her gloves were faultless [illegible] color and [illegible] she cast up n the Judge one of her most engaging smiles as she was called into the witness box but after his a [illegible] instructions the jury her face [illegible] expression of [illegible] contempt and her [illegible] partner she sailed out of the court room without the slightest perceptible shake of her gracefully swaying [illegible] The result of the [illegible] news to Miss Anthony who [illegible] afterward [illegible] It is probable that Mesdames Woodhull & Claflin in assuming the prerogatives of the stronger sex would [illegible] to be [illegible]

FINANCE AND COMMERCE

PORTLAND Sunday May 1 1870

We have no gold quotations to day

Legal tenders are quotable at 8[illegible]c

There are no notable changes in the merchandise market. The last week closed upon a very quiet market

The Salem Statesman of [illegible] says R C Kinney Esq informs us that there is now stored in the Salem Mills at this place 6 000 bushels of wheat and they have about [illegible] barrels of flour [illegible] The mill owners have been paying 55c up the country and have been paying 60c in Salem but after this week they will pay [illegible] The regular days [illegible] three months [illegible] until after harvest."

The San Francisco papers to the 27th received per steamer Moses Taylor contain very little of interest concerning commercial affairs The Alta has a New York letter of April 15 from which we take the subjoined extracts

"Rates of freight are still very irregular and there are no regular quotations At the moment it seems to be the hardest for shippers, for never in the experience of any one in the trade have rates been so demoralized For the Government freight noted below, the bids ranged from $1 08@1 41 ℔ bbl for the beef and pork, and 13½@16c ℔ foot for the other stuff The successful bid was at $1 08 ℔ bbl, and 16c ℔ foot from which is to be deducted 36c ℔ bbl, and 9c ℔ foot for lighterage from and to the Navy Yards.

Tonnage is plenty but owners are disgusted at the state of affairs Some of them have instructed the agents to get the best rates that they can and let the vessels go for it costs more to have the vessel here than to have her at sea. Others prefer to lay their ships up rather than accept the current rates while some of them have withdrawn vessels already committed the latest of which is the Lookout, which vessel was withdrawn early in the week and will be laid up until a better business offers The latest engagements are the Intrepid for Comstock s line and the Matchless for Glidden s line, from Boston

The freight offerings during the week have been fair and include candles oils oysters whisky coal, nails, etc. Also by the Government, 400 bbls beef and pork 491 pkgs groceries [illegible] bls clothing and 200 bdls hoop poles of the vessels loading, to go off this month the Annie W Smith is the most advanced, and will finish by the 20th The David Crockett is doing well, being a favorite, and will finish by the 25th. The Chandos, having received the above Government freight besides some other freight, will close about the same date The Ida Thompson is advertised for the 30th inst it being the desire of her owners to get her to sea as soon as possible. The St. Lucie is doing a fair business but will not go off before May.

Steamer freights are quiet this week except for the Isthmus, which are lively Through freights come down slowly the reduction in rates by the Overland route favoring shipments that way.

Railroad freights have also been rather dull during the week, still there has been a fair amount of shipments. Last week the Mail Company reduced their rates 25 ℔ cent., and now the Railroads have reduced theirs in proportion, ranging from $2 75 to $7 50 ℔ 100 lbs The shipments during the week, per Rock Island were 939 pkgs, chiefly dry goods clothing etc and per North Western, 187 pkgs tobacco 250 [illegible] 105 bxs fish, 234 pkgs boots and shoes, and some dry goods hats hardware, etc

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL,

San Francisco Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea Gleet Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Impotency etc. Self Abuse [illegible] yourself [illegible] successfully treated.

[illegible] How many thousands of persons, both male and female [illegible] [illegible] any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self-abuse This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes pain in the head ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision blunted intellect loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society loss of memory hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face furred tongue fetid breath coughs consumption night sweats monomania and frequent insanity If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of his complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay obtaining immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case, symptoms length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use For Ten Dollars sent in registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus sworn to certificates dupe the unwary Some of the self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades Some are tinsmiths shoemakers newspaper carriers intelligence office keepers etc Look for the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it but you will find the former occupations in it Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863 The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates private dedicated patients letters etc Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure
